What billionaire would want his daughter dating a clown? Most of the time, Jerome Williams turns garbage into gold. His recycling cooperative hosts the East Bays most popular art parties, and his clown act gives him celebrity status at political protests. But when he falls for socialite Taylor Patel, her venture capitalist father disapproves, and Jerome's very existence becomes imperiled. Hiring a lawyer might help, but when the line between professional and personal gets blurred, the situation spins completely out of control. How will Jerome save his business, his reputation, and his sanity? This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
