

An Affair of the Heart

---

By David George Richards

Paperback. Condition: New. 155 pages. Sarah Williams was leaving her husband. The car accident only made the separation permanent. A mix up at the hospital, a misplaced donor card, and an urgent heart transplant goes ahead. But was the right donor used Alex Williams had found out about his wifes affair with their American lawyer, Robert McCord. It had been a terrible argument. Sarah had stormed out and driven away. It was the last time Alex saw her alive, and his anger is soon matched by his grief. Anger, grief and a terrible outrage. Rachel Carter is young, romantic and has heart disease. For her, the heart transplant is the only answer. But the success of the transplant is only the beginning of her troubles. No sooner is she recovering when Alex sues the hospital for carrying out the transplant without permission. But not only does he want compensation, he wants his wifes heart back. Why does Robert McCord volunteer to fight Rachels court case against Alex Is it just old rivalry, or are they still fighting for the heart of the woman they both once loved And why does Rachel think she can feel Sarahs emotions in the heart...
