

Wrecking Ball (Paperback)

By Action Hero

Oberon Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. It s a story about a male photographer and a female celebrity. Its a question about how far we ll go, how much we think we re in control and how much we re prepared to go with the flow . The piece playfully manipulates theatrical conventions and narrative expectations, revealing the seductive power of make believe and the subtle abuses of power that dictate our relationships - with each other, with art and with language. The authors of the work are also the performers and the lines between truth and fiction, and consent and coercion blur until they re destroyed. It began as an experiment at Counterpulse in San Francisco as part of a Forest Fringe residency, working with the writer and director Andrea Hart. Wrecking Ball was commissioned by the Spring Festivals Commission 2015: Sprint, Watch Out, Mayfest, Pulse and Latitude Festival. Supported by the National Theatre Studio, Greenhouse, The Point, Eastleigh and the West End Centre. Funded by Arts Council England.
