Read this book and you ll never look at Elvis the same way again! -- Douglas Brode, author of Elvis Cinema and Popular Culture. In 1970, singer Elvis Presley secretly met with President Richard Nixon. This new comedic novel imagines that Presley became a Central Intelligence Agency operative, eventually moving up through the ranks to become a skilled assassin. Presented in an oral history fashion, the book tells us about Presley s secret transformation by the people who knew him best. Did he fake his death in 1977? Was Presley involved with the Watergate scandal? The Iran hostage crisis? Communicating with aliens? Read this book to find out the answers to these and many more questions.
