He was supposed to be a member of the Foxtan Hall, which burned last winter when a cargo of chemicals exploded. One of the crew was lost and it was at first thought that Albert was the victim. However, subsequent inquiry revealed the fact that Albert had signed on the Foxtan Hall and deserted the ship in Norfolk. Several confusing answers followed. Albert was on the Foxtan Hall but was saved. Albert had not sailed with the vessel. He had been seen in the Bahamas. The greatest mystery clouds the case. Every clue has been proved wrong and we are still unable to discover exactly whether Albert did sail on the doomed vessel or whether he is leading the careless life under a tropical sun, forgetting to write home or deferring it through the laziness for which the tropics have...
