Hans Dieter Schaal. Work in Progress

By Claus-Wilhelm Hoffmann

Edition Axel Menges GmbH, 2012. Buch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - From the 1970s to the present day there is scarcely an architect who has produced such pioneering work as a creative explorer of limits, lateral thinker and stimulating inspirational figure than Hans Dieter Schaal. With a high level of professionalism Schaal has regularly provided us with essential food for thought and hypotheses as an architect, painter, sculptor, draughtsman, designer, garden and stage designer, Utopian, philosopher and author. His work has always been driven not by superficial effects, but by existential statement on what surrounds us in terms of facts and things that are concealed or suppressed. Schaals artistic statements have elicited responses at home and abroad and have influenced whole generations of younger designers to a considerable extent. Thus Schaal embodies an ideal artistic type that one rarely comes across, known in the Renaissance as uomo universale. As anticipated for some time now, the current volume explores all facets of this complex and fruitful vvre, revealing above all its synergetic interrelationships. In addition to this Schaals thought and action patterns as relevant in terms of art and architectural history are emphasized in this comparative survey of his work, and their...
