The Building of a Monument: A History of the Mary Washington Associations and Their Work (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Susan Riviere Hetzel

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Building of a Monument: A History of the Mary Washington Associations and Their Work Robert Lewis, the nephew and private secretary of the General, tells us in his journal that the President did not receive the news of his mother's death until September 1st. A letter from Colonel Burges Ball, containing the sad news, arrived while he was seated at dinner, enjoying the bright and witty conversation of Baron von Steuben and Governor St. Clair. Robert Lewis further states, that when he opened the letter, My uncle immediately retired to his room and remained there some time alone. Reviews

This book is definitely not effortless to start on reading through but extremely fun to learn. Better than never, though I am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
