AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 492 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.1in. A refreshing blend of Five Star Stories in Indiana Jones Style, topped off with the African cream of current affairs Africa Par Adventure is a collection of over 100 tales, insights and observations of the inconceivable continent: Africa. It has all the adventure, mystery, political intrigue and pathos of any good thriller story-EXCEPT THAT ITS ALL TRUE. It captures the moods, prejudices, opinions and frustrations of people who, at some stage in their lives, have been sitting in the boiling pot of 20th Century Africa. This modern day odyssey details the experiences of a wide range of travelers, from anthropologists to retired teachers, TV reporters to academics, and idle wanderers to that modern day explorer: the businessman. Providing a ground-level viewpoint of Africa's modern history, the book features eye-popping stories -- the nature of which could make a Sunday Travel Section editor choke on her morning toast. Have you ever. . . Been held up at gunpoint by the police Learned how to survive amidst revolution Visited a place where the police transfer money, sell drugs and arrest you all at once Experienced the Egyptian banking system Learned how a drag queen lived her life in South Africa Been attacked by killer bees Heard No money, no English -no problem! Had the police hitch hike for you Seen the closest thing to hell on earth Observations of the Dark Continents history: Afrikaan: A dying language Are there such things as White Africans African urban legends The little hot spots of the cold war Survival tips for doing business on the continent Terrorist or freedom fighter You decide The problems facing Africa today: emigration, debt, AIDS, population growth, globalization Other issues covered: Africa's debated history, economics, religion, misadventure, law and order, transportation, war -- and many more. . . This item ships from multiple locations. Your book...
