The fifth publication in the Nazraeli Press One Picture Book series. From the text: "Hallo! Dear Naing Naing, I am so sorry for not writing you earlier. Do you remember Myint Zaw, General Secretary of D.A.B.? He died in March by sickness. All the place you had been with us in Hteekabalae are fallen into enemy's hand. I was in the area when the enemy approached. I sent my men to the front and have to leave quickly. I was told by my men to leave they don't let me know because they didn't want me to worry." From the publisher: "Chan Chao's first book, Burma: Something Went Wrong (Nazraeli Press, 2000), showed us a region in constant turmoil, whose people have been at war with themselves for generations, where violence and death, nevertheless,...
