Odele, the goddess of Healing, has returned to Olympus, once again the direct servant to Hera, queen of the gods. Yet even after the defeat of Eris, her work is not done. The war of the gods is imminent now, with Cronus restored to life and the Titans back at his side. But before the battle can begin, Odele must find her mortal twin brother, who had been captured by the forces of the vampire Kalos years before. She asks Hera for her brother s whereabouts, and the god queen allows her to attempt to rescue him, but under the condition that she s accompanied by Apollo. Apollo has waited ages for Odele s return to Olympus to heal the heart he d broken ages before. The process of healing won t be easy, and Odele s heart is not the only heart to be healed. Both Apollo and Odele s lives are at risk, as they join the god of darkness in a battles against two children of Gaea and Odele s own brothers, Cronus and Typhon. Will...
