Gentle, I wonder how relentless waves. And yet despite my turbulent relationship with that sea it is my constant companion. . A storm that tore me from my family and cast me onto the shore where I didn't belong . But I've been told the sea, is very cold you see, So Nana views it with a cup of tea . As for me, the cloak is well fastened, to quell any emotions, trying to drown me, in the devil's quicksand . The East Anglian Festival of Culture held a literary competition this year, and has produced this compilation of winning and commended entries, inspired by a View of the Sea. This is another successful step in the literary journey where writers have used their creative skills to raise money for Alzheimer's Research UK.
