After three broken betrothals, she is ordered to wed her family s enemy, a man she has never met and has good reason to fear. Faced with the prospect of an abusive marriage that will surely turn worse when her sin is revealed, she flees her family s home with the aid of a knight-a man who could prove her ruin. Christian Lavonne, the only remaining heir to the barony of Abingdale, has thrown off his monk s robes-and God-to administer his lands. Determined to end the devastation wrought by his family s feud with the Wulfriths, he agrees to marry his enemy s sister, a woman no man seems to want. When he learns she has fled with a knight who has broken fealty with the Wulfriths, he pursues her, knowing that when they meet his own sin will be revealed and he will be as much in need of redemption as the woman who may carry another man s child.
