Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from History of the Town of Ashland This History of the Town of Ashland is Part I of the inventory of the archives of Ashland and is published separately at the request of the town; Part II, which will include the essay on governmental organization and records system, the sketches of town offices, and inventory of records, is ready for publication and will be issued at an early date. Together these two volumes will form a unit in the series bearing the title Inventory of the Town and City Archives of Massachusetts, prepared by the Historical Records Survey in Massachusetts. The inventory of the town archives of Ashland is the fourth in the series of such inventories covering the towns and cities of Middlesex County. It is anticipated that eventually the records of every governmental unit in the State will be listed. Copies of this volume and of every publication of the Massachusetts Historical Records Survey are distributed to prominent libraries of the nation and to the larger and more centrally located libraries of Massachusetts. To bring together the records of the past and to house them in the buildings where they will be preserved for the use of men living in the future, a nation must believe in three things. It must believe in the past. It must believe in the future. It must, above all, believe in the capacity of its people so to learn from the past that they gain in judgment for the creation of the future, President Roosevelt has said. The existence of the Historical Records Survey indicates a belief on the part of the nation and of the state in...
