Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Onlooker, Vol. 1: A Literary Journal of Independent Critical Opinion on Public Affairs; Toronto, October, 1920 The people of Ontario, and particularly the loyal citizens of Toronto, may as well understand that The Toronto Daily Star has definitely espoused the cause of the Hon. Mackenzie King. The Globe is still halting between two opinions, hoping against hope that the incubus - forced upon the Liberal party (or what is left of it) by the Young Quebec Nationalists, to the humiliation of all the Liberal premiers, who had decided on Mr. Fielding-may be relieved by the recognition on the part of the young man himself of his complete and utter failure as a leader. For that he has been a humiliating failure is beyond question. All that he has to offer is abuse and wild, reckless charges against men so far removed above him as to render comparison ridiculous. He may be dismissed in one phrase: Weighed and found wanting. No one knows this better than Mr. Lapointe, who evoked him from obscurity, and who is now edging towards the Hon. George Graham. It is a pretty situation, and not over-comfortable for The Globe. It should have waited a little while longer before making Clubs trumps. So far as the temporary leader of the Lapointe brand of Liberalism is concerned The Star has taken the plunge definitely. The slightest trivial doings of its hero - as, for example, his dancing with the maidens of North York - are religiously chronicled. In the editorial page it is sought to prove that the National Government (Quebec cannot claim this noble word unless and until it become a separate nation, and that, please...
