Excerpt: . . . easily yielding to the Womans Pains, or freely giving way to the Touch of your Fingers (the Water-bag at the same time projecting largely through it), and regularly expanding or widening itself more and more by the Influence of every Pain, till there is sufficient Room thereby obtained for the Expulsion of the Child, insomuch that it may be able to pass forth, and come into the World along with the flowing Waters (as soon as the Pains shall have broke open the Bag in which they are contained), or directly after them; under these lucky Circumstances you may justly comfort your Patient with the strongest and most positive Assurances of a very happy, safe, and speedy Issue. Another Case remains (a dismal one it is), wherein you may soon determine your Judgment concerning the Event of the Labour, and the Fate of the Infant, at least: For whenever this unfortunate Case happens (as it sometimes has done, and consequently the like Instances may occur in your Practice), there can be neither a quick nor a flow Delivery, nor, in Reality, any Delivery at all, with regard to the Child, unless the unhappy Womans Body be laid open, having the Operation performed on her which is called the Cesarean Section from the Account which we have from the Historians, of Julius Caesar being brought into the World by the Performance of the said Operation. . . . This dreadful Case, which must...
