Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Marketing and Transportation Situation, Vol. 153: May 1964 Farmers received 37 cents of the dollar consumers spent for farm foods in retail food stores in January-March 1964, 1 cent more than in the final quarter last year and the same share as in the first quarter of 1963. Total net income of leading corporations that process and distribute farm products was larger in 1963 than in 1962. Net income as a percentage of sales was the same or a little higher last year for all groups of companies, except those operating department and specialty stores. Net income as a percentage of net assets was higher in 1963 than in 1962 for several groups of companies. This percentage, however, averaged lower for leading companies manufacturing tobacco products and clothing and apparel and those operating department and specialty stores. It was the same as in 1962 for leading manufacturers of textile products and for retail food chains. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
