Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Studies of Corn and Its Uses 3. Conditions: (a) No one to be allowed to take part in this contest who is less than 15 years of age or more than 21 years. (b) No one allowed to take part in the contest who has ever attended a corn class in an agricultural college. 4. Requirements: (a) Each contestant must bring to the Institute the best 40 ears of corn he can select from corn grown on the home farm. (b) Each contestant must attend the day sessions of the Institute. 5. An expert corn judge to be provided who will give instructions to all competitors on the first day of the Institute and examine them on the second day. Know How and Reason Why is the Team that Draws the Car of Success To be successful in these contests it is necessary to be very observing and learn more as to why and how plants grow; and why some plants, like some men, thrive and prosper better than others. The best and surest way to do this is to grow the plants and watch them carefully through their interesting progress of growth to fruitage. It is important not only to study about the thing, but to study the thing itself. The winners in these contests will be those who this year systematically study corn and plants. Expert corn judges are not made in a day or week. It is the boy who intelligently and patiently studies the growing corn plant and spends his spare moments studying the ears and kernels of corn of different varieties who will win these premiums and be awarded the...
