Reporting for Duty: A Day at the White House (Paperback)

By H K Gilbert

iUniverse, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Hi there! My name is Barkley. I m a secret service dog for the president of the United States, and I m reporting for duty. Every day, I help guard the White House, which is located in Washington DC. My job is to help keep America s first family safe and to make sure things run smoothly! The White House is a pretty busy place; each and every day, a lot of people visit it. I try to run a tight ship around here and keep track of what s going on. It s a hard job, but someone s got to do it! I m glad you re here today because I have a lot of sniffing around to do! Come on, let s go inside! The White House in Washington DC, is not an ordinary house. It has 132 rooms, 35 bathrooms, 147 windows, and three elevators. In this picture book for children, Barkley, a secret service dog, provides a fun-filled tour through the White House. Barkley shows young readers the State Dining Room that seats 130 guests. He tours...
