Of course it pays to study pharmacy--with as good an institution as the St. Louis College of Pharmacy. THE English, the German and the French are the languages of science. This fact should be recognized by those who are entrusted with the education of youths desirous of entering the medical profes ion. It is much wiser to spend two years in a pre anjuaScs o medical course based upon the future intentions of a Science. boy than tQ adliere blindly to the dictum, that only classical education can fit the mind for the study of a profession. Now that all reputable schools of medicine will shortly...
