Where Does the Food We Eat Come From?: Grandpa Solomon Tells His Granddaughter All about Agriculture (Paperback)

By Rami Erez

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Anna E (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Somewhere in the north in a nice little village, Grandpa Solomon lives. Grandpa is a farmer and he grows grapefruits, oranges, sweet clementines and other fruits and vegetables. When my sister, Or, and I come to visit Grandpa and Grandma, he takes us both on the tractor for a tour of the fields. Grandpa always tells me, My dear Aviv, when you see and know how food grows, it gives you a great appetite! And before Grandma Susie calls, Girls! It s time to eat! he explains and shows us how to sow and water and help the plants to grow. I listen to every word. Sometimes I ask a question and what he told me, I ll tell you, too - right from the start.
