Nicholas College, Lancing: From Its Foundation at Shoreham in August, 1848, to the Commencement of the Month of November, 1900 The Headmaster very kindly gave me access to official documents in his keeping, and these were of material assistance in the compilation; and for that assistance, as well as for the enthusiastic support given to the work from beginning to end, my sincere thanks are herein expressed. Mr. Gerald Young and the Rev. A. W. Rowe contributed most interesting memoirs, from which many Old Boys were traced to their present occupation and address. Lack Of skill prevented me welding them into amore interesting whole; but the trouble taken in their original compilation has not been without effect in the ensuing pages. Reviews

This pdf is definitely not easy to get started on studying but quite entertaining to read through. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
