IMPACT (PAPERBACK)

Cambridge Free Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. 2nd 2017 ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . He dies . and wakes up with a genetically perfect body. A winner of the 2016 Eric Hoffer Award for best eBook, the Epic eBook Award for best Action Adventure and ForeWord Reviews Book of the Year (under the original title Resurrect), IMPACT is a thought provoking cross between The Bourne Identity, Avatar and Armageddon . but with REAL apocalyptic threats. During a routine flight, Commander Josh Logan s F-18 fighter catches on fire. Preventing the burning jet from hitting a neighborhood, he ejects too late. Paralyzed and hemorrhaging, he lies on the ground looking at the stars as his heart beats its last beat. One year later, he s found naked and unconscious on the side of a road. He wakes up in a city hospital looking like a multiracial Olympic athlete. His memory is intact, but he realizes his body wasn t repaired, it was replaced; He appears to be a genetic blend of the best genes from every race with one-in-a-billion capabilities. With no identity, his beautiful and intelligent ICU nurse invites him to stay with her until he can build a new identity. He s contacted by a voice he believes represents a classified government agency responsible for his return. He s told a comet will strike Earth in two years, erasing almost all life, and he is the key to humanity s survival. A Navy pilot brought back from the dead to save the world? He realizes that the most likely explanation is insanity, but.
