RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 26 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)155845012 Subject: Security clearances -- United States. Excerpt: . . . adjudication phase include tasks that occur before adjudicators actually receive the investigative reports from OPM. More recently, OMBs February 2007 report to Congress noted that its timeliness statistics do not include the time to . . . hand-off investigation files to the adjudicative agency and estimated this handling and mailing time at up to 15 days. Not counting all days for closed pending cases. OPMs May 2006 testimony before Congress did not indicate whether the timeliness statistics on complete investigations included a type of incomplete investigation that OPM sometimes treats as being complete. In our February 2004 report, we noted that OPMs issuance of closed pending investigations - investigative reports sent to adjudication facilities without one or more types of source data required by the federal investigative standards - causes ambiguity in defining and accurately estimating the backlog of overdue investigations. In our February 2004 report, we also noted that cases that are closed pending the provision of additional information should continue to be tracked separately in the investigation phase of the clearance process. According to OPM, from February 20, 2005, through July 1, 2006, the number of initial top secret clearance investigative reports that were closed pending the provision of additional information increased from 14, 841 to 18, 849, a 27 percent increase. DISCO officials and representatives from some other DOD adjudication facilities have indicated that they will not adjudicate closed pending cases since critical information is missing. OPM, however, has stated that other federal agencies review the investigative reports from closed pending cases and may determine that they have enough information for adjudication. Combining partially completed investigations with fully completed investigations...
