

Lord of the Ralphs

By John McNally

Lacewing Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. I knew kids like Ralph and they scared me but none of them had his heart, his humor, or ultimately his entertaining story. Mitch Albom McNally s writing is so compelling, not to mention funny, that you re often surprised by sudden, more tender moments. Sarah Dessen A serious joy. Richard Russo Every school year was a chance to start all over again, and so while the first seven months of 1978 had sucked, I had high hopes that August would be the beginning of the year not sucking. And because it would be my last year of grade school, I had secretly hoped that eighth grade would be different somehow, that a cute girl from another state would transfer to my school and fall insanely in love with me . . . Two boys, Hank and Ralph, create moments of outrageous transcendence in this comic novel about adolescence in the 1970s a time, like today, when adults couldn t be trusted and just getting by was hard work. Amid the clatter of Cheap Trick and Styx, CB radios and Creature...
