

Still Something is Missing

By Akash Khonde (Author) & Smita Salins (Ed.)

Omji Publishing House Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, India, 2014. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Everybody falls in love- at one point or the other. Everyone loses their hearts, minds and souls to that special someone, who sweeps them off their feet; who turns their world upside down. Isn't it the most beautiful feeling; to have someone hold your hand, and say I love you? We all hope for a 'happily ever after' to our love stories. But not all love stories have 'happy endings', because we don't live in a perfect world. Still something is missing is a collection of heart-wrenching tales of unfulfilled desires, and unending love; the kind of love that had a path, but could not find a destination. These are passionate, soul-stirring stories that are sure to tug at your heart strings. From untold love, to an old-age crush; from the death of a loved one, to a suicide; from the joys of a first kiss, to last goodbyes- SSIM has it all! And the base of almost all love stories; is the beautiful word 'friendship'. SSIM explores this aspect of love as well, and is sure to bring smiles and tears, while taking you through this wonderful...
