

Memories of Two Wars: Cuban and Philippine Experiences (Paperback)

By Frederick Funston

University of Nebraska Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Though America did not join rebellious Cuban forces against the Spanish empire until 1898, Frederick Funston (1865-1917) was so moved by a speech by Gen. Daniel Sickles in 1896 that he went to Cuba as a filibuster in the battle for Cuban independence. When the United States finally went to war against Spain, he took command of a regiment, was sent to the Philippine-American War, and received the Medal of Honor for his daring and skill in crossing a river to turn the flank of the Philippine army at the Battle of Calumpit. Two years later, in 1901, he became a national hero for capturing Philippine president and lead insurgent Emilio Aguinaldo. In such roles, Funston was integral to the successful implementation of U.S. policy. Memories of Two Wars is Funston's firsthand account of his adventures in the Cuban Revolution and the Philippine-American war. Conversational yet informative, Funston's memoir relates his experience with the vigor and joviality of a friend sharing war stories over a drink and a cigar. He describes the guerrilla-style combat necessitated by the lack of weapons, the exotic...

READ ONLINE
[ 6.54 MB ]

Reviews

It is just one of my personal favorite publications. It is among the most awesome publications I have read. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Delia Rutherford

It is simple in study easier to comprehend. It is one of the most awesome ebooks I have read through. You won't truly feel monotony at any moment of your respective time (that's what catalogs are for concerning the event you question me).

-- Clint Sporer