By Stanley I Greenspan M D, Gil Tippy Psyd

Simon Brown, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Written during the third year of The Rebecca School s operation in Manhattan, RESPECTING AUTISM: The Rebecca School DIR Casebook for Parents and Professionals adroitly describes the results of Tina McCourt and Michael Koffler s efforts to conceive and create a new school in New York City for children diagnosed on the autism spectrum. Because of the devotion of the entire staff as well as parents, all New York students can now receive a developmentally appropriate, thoughtful, and integrated education. According to co-author Dr. Gil Tippy, Clinical Director: -At Rebecca School we believe that everything we do originates with respect. Respect for the children we serve, respect for the staff with whom we work, and respect for the families of the children.- Dr. Tippy and Floortime(TM) creator Dr. Stanley Greenspan collaborated on RESPECTING AUTISM. In 2005, Dr. Greenspan became a consultant to Rebecca School, and his work with students is featured throughout the book. The school institutionalizes Dr. Greenspan s - Floortime(TM)- methods of teaching and its educators work to extend students circles of communication using the Developmental, Individual Difference, Relationship-based (DIR(R)) model...
