Loyola Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 272 pages. Dimensions: 5.9in. x 5.0in. x 0.7in. Bereavement after the loss of a baby is often quiet and lonely, writes Christine O'Keefe Lafser, who has twice lost a child to death. There is no wake or funeral, no grave site, no memorial to our baby's life or death. . . . Since there are no real memories of our little one's life, people have a hard time comprehending the depth of our love and grief. In these reflections, Lafser offers grieving parents the empathy and courage that can come only from one who has walked the same difficult path. Chris expressed so many of my thoughts and feelings and made me feel so normal. . . . The greatest gift is learning that God does not desert us in our time of need. Linda Davis, Compassionate Friends, after miscarriage and stillbirth The juxtaposition of a Scripture text with each reflection is inspired. Some of the texts are breathtaking in their beauty and appropriateness. This book is a must for anyone who is ever touched by the loss of an infant. Joseph Awad, poet and grieving grandfather This book will be very helpful for parents who are mourning the loss of their child. It will also prove very beneficial to anyone who is ministering to a bereaved parent. Robert N. Craig, O. F. M. Cap., hospital chaplain These reflections allowed me to be how I was feeling not feel like I should be going through the stages of grief that other books described. With this book I was no longer a square peg trying to fit into a round hole. Jeanette Siebels, after infant death This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
