Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Maine. 1936. Guests arrive in the fog-shrouded fishing village of Kildare Cove on Broke Moon island for a weekend party at the vacation home of a wealthy friend. However, all is certainly not as it seems. After nightfall, unsettling events soon begin. and become more horrific as time passes. Tipped gravestones. A servant carries food-stuffs down to the basement in the middle of the night. A guest s strange fascination with the moon. An elderly neighbor strangles her cats, dumping them down a curbside drain. A mysterious infection. A rash of stolen tools. Occurrences at the abandoned cannery. A pile of dead animals around a lifeless pond. Tremors increasing in intensity. A cave exposed, and filled with enigmatic and disturbing paintings, and a strange and powerful artifact. A farm-horse s deadly rampage. Crabs pouring from the sea to attack and drag the victims back to the cold depths. The lighthouse s sudden darkness. Then. Gruesome murders, and even more horrific acts. Add a homeless World War I veteran, an innocent shoeshine boy, a feral and naked barber, the hermit-daughter of a freed slave. with a hidden power, suspicious fishermen, bubbling cove waters, Indian artifacts, old manuscripts and journal entries, fireworks, a dying oak tree, a broken down steam-shovel, and a new waste-water treatment plant. and you have this mystery-horror-adventure story, designed as a system-free tabletop rpg. but which can also easily be enjoyed as a novel. (. If you want more surprise and mystery, begin on page 14 after all the Setup, Introduction and Explanation. and do not read the back). Played as an RPG, will your PC s survive the growing threats? Will they unravel the clues that lead to...
