Maldini Drawings (Paperback)

By Slobodan Maldini

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Over the past decade in the new century, Slobodan Maldini has developed a large Internetnet work and an enviable production of written works - dictionaries, essays and novels, architectural designs and projects and engaged artistic intervention. As an independent author he works systematically presenting his achievements on personal internet blogs and web sites that are available to everybody for free. Through his creative scope, Maldini became productive phenomenon, a kind of sublimated electronic machine, where the speed of change of Internet features can be measured by the ideas that this artist brought into the open flow of electronic communication. His thoughtful and visionary projections can be compared only with Antonio Sant Elia, architectural genius at the beginning of the 20th century and its architectural manifesto of Futurism which affirms the freedom to say, plastic dynamism, music without quadrature and the art of noise . declaratively against cowardice traditionalists . This parallel is not accidental because there is remarkable similarity in their characters and designs, as well as in the selection of their philosophical and classical patterns. The only distinctionis that Sant Elia...
