This is the newly revised ADRP 1-02, OPERATIONAL TERMS AND MILITARY SYMBOLS, August 31, 2012: Posted on November 29, 2012. Army Doctrine Reference Publication (ADRP) 1-02 contains a compilation of Army operational terms, definitions, abbreviations, and acronyms as reflected in the latest editions of Army doctrinal publications. These terms are commonly used for the conduct of operations. They normally are used in the body of an operation order or in the current operations cell of a command post during operations. These terms form the basis for the language of the land operations should be understood by all professionals. ADRP 1-02 also provides a single standard for developing and depicting hand-drawn and computergenerated military symbols for situation maps, overlays, and annotated aerial photographs for all types of military operations. It is the Army proponent publication for all military symbols and complies with Department of Defense (DOD) Military-Standard (MIL-STD) 2525C, Common Warfighting Symbology. When communicating instructions to subordinate units, commanders and staffs from company through corps level should use this publication as a dictionary of operational terms and military symbols. The symbology chapters of this publication focus primarily on land military symbols applicable to the Army. This publication does not include terms that are only used within a branch or functional area or that have limited or no use outside the branch or functional area. This publication incorporates selected joint operational terms and definitions frequently used in Army doctrinal publications. Refer to Joint Publication (JP) 1-02 for...
