Excerpt from National Historic Landmarks: A Preservation Program of the National Park Service Americans have long treasured their cultural heritage. Among the most carefully authenticated treasures of that heritage are the national historic landmarks designated by the Secretary of the Interior for exceptional significance in the Nation's history. These treasures include such diverse places as the United States Capitol Building; ruts on the Oregon Trail - silent reminders of the trek of westward pioneers; Fair Lane, the home of Henry Ford, who launched America into the mass production industrial age; the quiet rural valley of Green Springs, Virginia.
