Not illustrated. 1884 Excerpt: .as the standard-bearer of the Republican party, another son of Illinois, one who will be recognized from one end of this land to the other, as an able statesman, a brilliant soldier, and an honest man--Gen. John A. Logan. A native of the State which he now represents in the councils of the Nation, reared among the youth of a section where every element of manhood is early brought into play, he is eminently a man of the people, identified with them in interest, in taste, and in feeling, and enjoying their sympathy, respect and confidence. The safety, the permanency, and the prosperity of the Nation, depend upon the courage, the integrity, the intelligence and the loyalty of its citizens. When yonder starry flag was assailed by enemies in arms, when the integrity of the Union was imperiled by organized treason, when the storm of civil war threatened the very life of the Nation, this gallant son of the Prairie State resigned his seat in the Congress of the United States, returned to his home, and was among the first of our citizens to raise a regiment, and to march to the front in defense of his country. Like Douglas, he believed that in time of war men must be either patriots or traitors; and he threw the weight of his influence on the side of the LTnion, and Illinois made a record second to none in the history of States in the struggle to preserve...
