Excerpt from An Authentic Account of the Massacre of Joseph Smith, the Mormon Prophet, and Hyrum Smith, His Brother: Together With a Brief History of the Rise and Progress of Mormonism, and All the Circumstances Which Led to Their Death Gov. Ford, in his address to the citizens of Illinois, after the death of the Smiths, does not intimate that he had any knowledge of the design of any person or persons to attack the Smiths; but he states unequivocally, that he was satisfied of a design on the part of some of the troops, if an opportunity Offered, to attack Nauvoo. The following is the passage in the Governor s address, to which I allude On the morning of the day the deed was committed, we had proposed to march the army, under my command, into Nauvoo; I, however, discovered, on the evening before, that nothing but utter destruction of the city, would satisfy a portion of the troops and that if We marched into the city, pretexts would not be wanting for commencing hostilities. The above extracts...
